Approx. 3 miles

Binsted, Home Hangar and River Hill Farm

- Start at The Binsted Inn pub, turn right
- Turn left (opposite small lane on right) and take path which heads due north across the fields
- Turn right at the first finger post and follow path, heading in an easterly direction, which crosses a large arable field. Turn left and then right again when you meet a path crossing at right angles. The path continues across the fields, dipping and then climbing gently. Look out for Telegraph House on the right-hand side
- Turn right at the waymark alongside a kissing gate at the north end of Home Hanger
- Follow path along the headland with views over Blacknest and continue along the path when it bears southerly towards River Hill Farm
- Follow path as it leaves the headland and bears left into River Hill Farm
- Join a paved track, and descend several steep steps to the Binsted-Blacknest road [1]
- Cross the road and take the track which leaves the road slightly to the left of the point you have emerged from the steps

- Follow path along the fence line and turn right (still following the fence) at the corner of the field
- Cross a stile and follow a winding narrow path with a fence on the right
- The path emerges at the edge of a field where you turn left at a finger post
- Soon turn right at another finger post and follow the path which takes you to Wheatley Lane
- Turn left and very soon leave the lane on a path along the bank, then turn right at a finger post to cross the field
- At the next finger post turn right and follow field path which later becomes a green lane and emerges on the Binsted road
- Turn left and follow pavement into village
- Arrive at pub

This walk has one stile and some steep steps. There are some pleasant views through the trees of the hanger.
